Biography of Dayna C...

Dayna can and will, achieve absolutely anything she sets her mind to. As a natural born performer, it's not a surprise she has already landed herself a role as the co-host on a new TV series, currently in pre-production!

With years of training in acting, singing and dancing already behind her, walking on set is all a part of life for young Dayna. From securing a role as a co-host for an upcoming kids TV show or being that cute as a button star on your T.V commercial to comprehensive and deep characters for your next film, Dayna has the ability to mould herself like a chameleon and will bring nothing short of an amazing performance – be it live or recorded - for your audience.

One meeting with this firecracker and you will know what we mean!

Academically gifted and receiving numerous awards in drama, acting and computer studies, Dayna's `passion is not only in front of the camera but also behind the scenes already making her own short movies! Future producer or director perhaps?
