Australian actor Rudi, gained a passion for the performing arts at a young age, 'born a natural' they say.

Throughout his theatrical years, Rudi has starred in countless performances; 'The Wizard of Oz', 'Matilda', 'The Addams Family', 'Musicals in Concert ~ Staring Todd McKenny & Friends', most recently involved in 'Australian Drama' (school production) and 'Grease'.

That's not quite enough though, Rudi's got some more flair to add to his diverse acting skills. After his exclusive selection to participate in a Tap Dancing placement with Matt Papa and Chris Horsey from 'TapDogs', Rudi was also nominated as best tapper during his time training with these industry leaders.

'Dancescapes' is a soon to be aired dance documentary / Perth-short film, Rudi successfully secured the lead role and lead dancer. Not only does he catapult his Television presence in this lead role, Rudi is currently settling into his newest role as a TV Presenter for a new Teen TV series.

Rudi's strong drive of a determined young man, is hurling him to the top of this industry, with an ever-growing awards collection to match. These national and international awards include; Best performer of the year 2014 (Dynamite Dance school WA), Best National Speed Tap 2015 (Gold coast QLD), Best Tap - International Dance Competition Dance upon a dream 2012, highest tap score of the Kwinana (W.A) dance festival 3 years in a row, Best overall performer 5 consecutive talent showcases and many other awards revived to him at Melbourne's AUSCAAS in acting, 2016 (W.A).

Rudi receives countless call backs from agents and casting directors located in Australia, Canada, New Zealand and the United States thus cementing his acting career worldwide.
